

2602371 Principles of International Business Management

3(3-0-6)

PRIN INTL BUS MGT

Principles and methods of dealing with multinationals; managing multinational companies; models and strategies of multinational corporate management; business functions: international marketing, international finance, comparative management, and international business policy.