

Course Description – Curriculum

Subject : 2604472 International Economics

INTL ECONOMICS

Credits : 3(3-0-6)

Course Condition: Prerequisite: 2604271

Description : Roles of international trade in national economy; concepts and tools in international trade analysis; determination of international market equilibrium; price mechanism in international trade; international trade and its impacts on national income; income absorption approach to balance-of-payments problems; exchange rate systems and their effects; characteristics and outcomes of tariff policies and other related policies, balance-of-trade and balance-of-payments problems of a developing economy.

